LIMERICK CORPORATION. "Address from the County Borough Council of Limerick to John Dillou, Esq., M.P., presented at great National demonstration in Kilterly, Sunday, the 25th of May,

"DEAR MR. DILLON-The occasion your visiting our county affords us an op-portunity, which we gladly avail of, to express to you, on behalf of the Borough Council and the citizens of Limerick, our appreciation of the invaluable services which, as a distinguished member of the Irish Parliamentary Party, you have always rendered to the cause of Ireland, and our admiration of the unswerving loyalty which you have so consistently and so honestly given to your great chief and leader, Mr. John Redmond, in his conduct and direction of the National movement, in pursuance of the policy as laid down from time to time by the united body over which he so worthily presides. The statesmanlike and brilliantly successful manner in which that policy has been guided through many intricate and trying situations by the trusted leaders, of whom we are so proud, has won the unstinted approval of our fellow-countrymen in every part of the world, as is every day becoming more abundantly manifest. We are confident abundantly manifest. GUARD THE PUBLIC HEALTH

Recently there was an interesting discussion upon the question as to why it is difficult to guard the public health. Varied opinions were expressed, but it was noticeable that more attention was given to pointing out the difficulties that beset public health officers in their work than to suggesting remedies for existing evils. Doubtless, however, the epinions of those whose delly work brings them in close touch with all kinds of health-piving agencies, much good may be done in the way of preventing many distressing and debilitating conditions. Whatever may be our diverse opinions on other matters, we all agree about the priceless value of Good Health. These who have had experience of the excellent results obtainable from BEECHALI'S PILLS in the curative treatment of dyspentials, contiguation, sick-brackache, biliousness, liver complaints, and the long train of mercons disorders which accompany those evils, know that this medicine is the best ever compounded for the purpose. It is perfectly reliable although it is a "Secret Remedy"; it has been tried by the Public for upwards of skrty years, and in soite of all opposition, and in the face of columny prompted by Jesionay caused by success, the voice of the people is practically unarimous in favour of

BY TAKING
