IMPRESS IT ON YOUR MEMORY. Lanna Lodge, McLean's Terrace, Westport. Dear Sir, - As a teacher of music I have had to walk several miles daily, mostly through a mountainous district. Owing to the continual strain on my feet two ugly corns developed, and I was compelled to cease my duties. After using two bottles of your medicine, the corns were cured, and am able to resume my former duties. You are free to publish or make whatever use you like of this letter; I am deeply grateful. Yours sincerely, THOS. LAFFEY, L.L.C.M.
