and the Hired Man When They In-

Lagorio Pronounces the Victims Out of Danger.

The entire family of Fred Laughlin, a farmer near Wyanet, Ill., and the hired man were bitten by a rabid dog a week ago last Saturday and now are under the care of Dr. Lagorio at the Pasteur Institute, 228 Dearborn avenue. They have been under treatment a week and now are considered out of danger.

The dog was a black and tan puppy, infected by its mother, which died of hydrophobia only two weeks before.

The persons bitten are:
Laughlin, Fred.
Laughlin, Mrs. Fred.
Laughlin, Marie, aged 8 years.
Laughlin, Mabel, aged 5 years.
Lambkin, Leo, farm hand.

While playing in the yard the dog attacked the children, and when Laughlin, his wife and the hired man ran to their aid the dog turned on them. The farmer was the most severely injured. Both his hands were lacerated.

Laughlin started to bring the dog with him to Chicago for examination, but it died on the way. Dr. Lagorio diagnosed the case as dumb rabies.

as Son-in-Law.

The father of Lucy Rounds, 18 years old, Robey and Walnut streets, yesterday caused he was ready to marry Miss Rounds. The girl said she was willing. The mature fiancé then said he would commit suicide unless permitted to marry. The father said he did not care and chased the disappointed suitor away.

Metcalf was arrested after being refused a ance of a week in order to find his daughter,

FINDS VASES OF 4500 B. C.
IN THE RUINS OF TEMPLES

University of Chicago Oriental Expedition Secures Relics After Excavation of Babylonian Debris by 120 Workers

The discovery by the University of Chicago's oriental expedition of the ruins of a Babylonian temple containing vases, statues and inscriptions dating back to 4500 B. C. has just been announced by E. J. Banks, field director.

With a force of 120 men Dr. Banks has partially excavated the ruins and has found ruined walls and foundations of four temples, built one above the other. Dr.
Banks dates these ruins thus with reference to the kings who built them.

Among the articles which Dr. Banks has found are marble statues, an engraved marble lamp, fragments of white marble, onyx and sandstone vases, and various bronze objects, among them a large spike terminating in a finely shaped lion.

"When the work at this point is finished," writes Dr. Banks, "I hope to have a good representative collection of vases of marble and other stones used in the services of the temple."

WILL CLEAN MORE STREETS.

At Meeting of Bureau Arrangements Are Made to Extend Work in State Street.

The citizens' street cleaning bureau met yesterday afternoon at the office of the chairman, Joy Morton, in the Railway Exchange building, and made arrangements to extend the cleaning district from Madison street north in State street to the river.

Richard T. Fox, who is superintending the work, announced that he had opened an office for the bureau at 631 Monadnock block, and had formulated plans for cleaning the entire district. Considerable attention has been given by Mr. Fox to the allotment of expenses to the property owners on the various streets to be cleaned.

"One of the biggest problems for the committee to solve is the raising of funds for conducting the work," said Mr. Fox. "It will take $150,000 for the year, according to our lowest estimates. This does not include hauling snow."

SHERIDAN CLUB MENACED WITH A RECEIVERSHIP.

Ryan & Hart Company Asks for Appointment of One, Alleging It Cannot Collect a $310 Judgment.

Receivership proceedings were begun in the Circuit court yesterday against the Sheridan club. The complainant is the Ryan & Hart company, with a claim of $310.

On June 13, the Ryan & Hart company declared, it obtained a judgment against the Sheridan club in a suit involving bills for printing invitations, cards, and programs.
Deputy Sheriff Charles E. Sherlock searched in vain for property of the club that he might seize to satisfy the judgment. All the rugs, billiard tables, and furnishings at the clubhouse, 4100 Michigan avenue, are declared mortgaged in excess of their value.

The Chicago National bank, as owing the club money, is made a defendant to the bill.
So is John E. Murphy, said to be a debtor of the club, also John J. Kinsella, James J.
Kelly, Richard W. Wolfe, Alfred J. Cronin, E. M. Sanders, E. M. Keeley, D. J. C. Mc-Dermott, J. J. Fitzgerald, Frank R. Sten-son, and Owen V. Fay, members and officers. Plaintiff asks that all members of the club in arrears for their dues be made defendants as fast as their names are discovered.

"KING SOLOMON" IS ACCUSER.

Big Clairvoyant Will Appear Before Board to Charge Detectives with Attempting to "Graft."

"King Solomon," a 300 pound clairvoyant who calls himself a Hindu, but who is declared to be a negro, yesterday filed affidavits accusing Detective Sergeants J. H.
Gallagher and P. S. O'Connell with attempting to secure "graft" from him. He will appear before the trial board. "King Solomon" wears red trousers, gilt and crimson robes, and a crown. He has a white wife and tells fortunes at 232 Michigan avenue.

AGED PROFESSOR TO RETIRE.

Dr. Herrick Johnson Will Leave His Chair at the McCormick Theological Seminary.

Ill health has caused the resignation of Dr.
Herrick Johnson as professor of sacred rhetoric and pastoral theology in the Mc-Cormick Theological seminary. It will take effect at the holidays of next year. The venerable instructor, however, will not entirely sever his connection with the school, but will give occasional lectures in homiletics.

NOW SEEK FOR A TRAITOR
AMONG DUNNING EMPLOYES.

County Board in Coal Investigation Wants to Know Who "Tipped Off" Secret Tests to the Contractors.

Who "tipped it off" to O'Gara, King & Co., coal contractors, that tests of fuel were to be made at the county institutions at Dunning on March 9, May 14, and June 3?

This is a new question the special committee of the county board will try to solve at the next meeting Tuesday morning. The session of the committee set for yesterday was postponed. That some one is guilty of a breach of confidence is believed by the commissioners.
Employees at Dunning are suspected.

The fuel in the last unexplained car that arrived has been kept apart. A special test of this coal may be made before the investigation is concluded.

"All of the firemen," said Commissioner Planigan yesterday, "appear to have taken pains, according to their testimony, to have been at least seventy-five feet away from the valve, the breaking of which caused the suspension of one test where there was no possibility of the substitution of coal."

ALLEGES ATTEMPT TO DROWN.

Divorce Plaintiff Asserts Thomas Wallace Tried to Throw Her from Deck of Steamer.

Only interference of friends, Mrs. Helen Wallace yesterday testified, prevented Thomas Wallace from throwing her into the lake last August from the deck of a South Haven steamer. She sought a divorce and cited many acts of cruelty.

Mrs. Della Wooley, 874 Washington boulevard, was another disappointed in matrimony. She said James M. Wooley of St.
Louis promised her a fine residence and a trip to Europe, but swore his wealth was imaginary and he was a cocaine victim.
Mrs. Wooley mourns the loss of $3,400, which, she says, she gave her husband.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dusinberre wants a divorce because Henry W. Dusinberre, now of Pittsburg, treated her with "utter indifference" during many years.

WED IN SECRET IN CHICAGO.

Ottumwa, Ia., Young Persons Succeed in Eluding the Vigilance of Obdurate Parents.

Baker and Miss Olga Cary, both of Ottumwa, Ia., were secretly married at the Hotel Morrison Thursday evening. They will reside on the groom's ranch in Idaho.
Opposition of the groom's parents led the couple to run away. Miss Cary came to Chicago ostensibly to visit a friend in Hyde Park.

The groom is a son of S. H. Baker, an Ottumwa commission merchant.
