

NINE KILLED BY STORMS: PROPERTY LOSS IS BIG.

Cyclones and Tornadoes Sweep Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Kansas, and Oklahoma—Many Injured May Die.

Nine persons are known to have been killed and more than 100 were injured, many fatally, by cyclones and tornadoes in Iowa, Minnesota, Kansas, and Oklahoma Friday night and yesterday.

Harvey Scott, a lineman, was killed at Sioux City, Ia., in rescuing a little girl from a live wire prostrated by the storm.

John Coons was killed in his home at Clarendon, Ia., by a bolt of lightning.

A barn at Persla, Ia., was blown down while Mrs. H. P. Erlins was in it, killing her.

An unidentified Italian laborer was picked up by the wind at Marshall, Mich., and it is believed was thrown into the river.

P. F. Brown, a traveling man, was killed and Mrs. Wismiller was injured so badly she died in a storm that destroyed one-third of Carmen, Okla. Twenty others were injured.

Two persons, whose names have not been learned, were killed at Bala, Kas.

At Dodge City, Kas., a herder, name not known, was killed.

At each of the above places many were injured and it is feared numerous additional deaths will result.

The property loss will be enormous, many buildings being leveled and crops ruined. In places where already high water or storms had compelled three plantings this year the farmers will have to begin their work all over again.

In northwestern Iowa the storm was especially severe, heavy losses being reported at Sioux City, Onawa, Sibley, Clarion, Aurelia, Estherville, and a dozen other places. Randolph, Neb., across the river from Sioux City, also suffered.

E. B. ANDREWS NOW FOR GOLD.

Chancellor of University of Nebraska Publicly Admits He Erred in Silver Question.

Lincoln, Neb., May 23.—[Special.]—Chancellor E. Benjamin Andrews of the University of Nebraska, in an address today before his class in ethics said in part: "I confess the error of the opinion I held for a number of years regarding the production of gold. The output of gold has increased enormously since 1890. By 1897 it had completely checked the fall which prices had been undergoing since 1873, and since 1897 has caused a considerable rise in price. I have to admit that it was an astounding mistake, and I was in great and inexcusable error."
